

National Truth and Reconciliation Day

Monday, September 30 2024

National Truth and Reconciliation Day, observed in Canada on September 30, honours residential school survivors and promotes reflection on the impacts of colonialism, fostering healing and reconciliation with Indigenous communities. Every student at JMSA will be given an orange shirt to wear for the day.